

Improving the Welfare of Farmed Fish
Tuesday 30th July 2019, 13.00 until 17.30
County Hall, London

13.00 Registration

13.30 Welcome Dr Tracey Jones, Director of Food Business, CIWF

13.35 Fish Sentience and Issues in Aquaculture - Dr Natasha Boyland, Fish Policy and Research Manager, CIWF

13.45 Aligning Fish Welfare at Slaughter

- Mike Forbes, Ace Aquatec
- Ruth Hoban, New England Seafood: Seabass/Seabream humane slaughter
- Dr Bryony Banks, CIWF: Specific welfare requirements of 5 key species

14.30 Panel Discussion: Mike Forbes, Ruth Hoban, Dr Bryony Banks

14.50 Refreshment break

15.15 Fish Production

- Ines Ajuda, CIWF: Building a framework for fish welfare
- Dr Bryony Banks, CIWF: Improving the welfare of farmed Atlantic salmon
- Dr Krzysztof Wojtas, CIWF: Wild caught fish for fish feed

15.45 Panel Discussion: Ines Ajuda, Dr Bryony Board, Dr Krzysztof Wojtas

16.05 Refreshment break

16.20 Measuring welfare in a commercial setting

- Ines Ajuda, CIWF: The importance of measuring welfare
- Dr Sonia Rey Planellas, Institute of Aquaculture, University of Stirling: Measuring welfare in farmed fish/coping mechanisms in farmed fish
- Ed Ley-Wilson, Waitrose: Welfare in practice
- Patrick Blow, M&S: M&S welfare outcome measuring programme

17.00 Panel Discussion: Ines Ajuda, Dr Sonia Rey Planellas, Ed Ley-Wilson, Patrick Blow

17.20 Closing comments Dr Tracey Jones, CIWF

17.30 Forum end